Dear Parents,

Sunday, March 28th is the celebration of Palm Sunday, the first day of the holiest week of our year. The theme of Holy Week is the "Way of the Cross". We are invited to embrace the cross of Jesus as we journey with Jesus to Calvary. During this week we are invited to feast, to wait, to walk, and to feel God's unconditional love for us.

May the Risen Christ bless you and all those you love,
Sister Linda

4th Annual Pirates Golf Tournament Hell's Point Golf Course Friday, April 16th, 2010

2010-2011 Enrollment has begun!

The 2010-2011 tuition rates, C.A.R.E.S. rates and summer camp information are now available on our website. Re-enrollment contracts for families that are currently enrolled in St. Pius X School are in this week's communiqué.

Please use the 2010-2011 registration form also available on our website for siblings or friends that are interested in attending our school.

St. Pius X School will again be using FACTS to collect tuition for the 2010-2011 school year. You may choose to either pay St. Pius X School the FULL amount of the tuition by July 1, 2010 OR to have your payments made through an ACH transaction debited monthly from your checking/savings account. If you chose to use FACTS to make your payments, you must re-enroll for 2010-2011. The FACTS link to re-enroll is available on our website.

Deadline for tuition assistance applications is Friday, April 16th. To apply, visit www.factstuitionaid.com. There is an application fee.

Wanted: Pius Dads of All Ages!

Are you interested in being part of a group of St. Pius X Dad's? Are you willing to assist the school in projects and functions? Are you interested in being part of a group that will enhance your bonds with your children and community?

St. Pius X School and Parish is looking to see if there is interest in starting a Dad's group that would allow men to establish stronger social ties with one another while
